Comprehension Questions to ask at home Questions to ask before you read Can you look at the pictures and predict what will happen in this book? What makes you think that? What characters do you think might be in the story? Do you think there will be a problem in this story? Why or why not? Does the topic/story relate to you or your family? How? What does the cover tell you about the book? What are you curious to find out about this book? What do you want to learn? Questions to ask while you read What do you think will happen next? What is the problem in the book? Why do you think the character did that? When you were reading this part, what were you picturing in your head? What can you tell me about the story so far? Can you predict how the story will end? Why do you think the character did What would you have done if you were the character? How would you have felt if you were the character? As you read, what are you wondering about? Can you put what you've read into your own words? Questions to ask after you've read Can you remember the title? In your opinion, was it a good title for the book? Why or why not? Were your predictions about the story correct? Why do you think the author wrote this book? What is the most important point the author is trying to make in his writing? What was the moral (or lesson) in the story? What was your favorite part in the story? If you could change one thing in the story, what would it be? Can you retell the story in order? If you were , how would you have felt? Is there a character in the story you are like? How are you alike? Did you like the book? Why or why not? ©TheReadingBungalow2015